The screenshot displays a user interface for a course titled 'Unit 1. Introduction to Management Systems'. On the left, a sidebar shows the course progress with a 75% completion bar and a list of activities: Presentation, Exercise, Assessment, and Personal project step A - Unit 1. The main area, titled 'My progress', contains a table with the following data:

Learning object name	Status	Score	Time	Detail
Presentation	Completed	/	00 : 00 : 00	-
Exercise	Completed	57/100	00 : 00 : 00	-
Assessment	Passed	73/100	00 : 00 : 00	-
Personal project step A - Unit 1	Not attempted	/	00 : 00 : 00	-
Total of completed learning objects	75%		00 : 00 : 00

Arrows from the text boxes below point to the 'Assessment' row in the table, specifically to the 'Status' and 'Score' columns.

Assessments do count for passing the units so you will get a passed/failed status.

If you have not submitted your answers but you have entered the activity, you will see a completed status but without a score.

You will get a score for your assessment.

You have only one attempt and your score will count for passing the unit.

You will pass the assessment at 50%.

In the reporting tool you can see your results

Learning object name	Status	Score	Time	Detail
Presentation	Completed	/	00 : 00 : 00	-
Exercise	Completed	57/100	00 : 00 : 00	-
Assessment	Passed	73/100	00 : 00 : 00	-
Personal project step A - Unit 1	Not attempted	/	00 : 00 : 00	-
Total of completed learning objects	75%		00 : 00 : 00

Assignments (project steps) do count for passing the units so you will get a passed/failed status.

If you have not submitted your assignment (project step) but you have entered the activity, you will see a completed status but without a score.

Your tutor will give you a score for your assignment (project step) but you won't see it in the reporting tool.

You can see your assignments results in through the Assignments tool that is in the main page of the course. If you have submitted your assignment but you don't have the score is because the tutor has not reviewed it yet. You will pass the assignment (project step) with 5 out of 10.
